

AN ACT proposing to create a new section of the Constitution of Kentucky relating to the possession of cannabis.

WHEREAS, cannabis is a naturally occurring plant that has a number of medical uses; and

WHEREAS, far too many citizens of the Commonwealth have been incarcerated for minor crimes involving the possession of small amounts of cannabis and the vast majority of the citizens of the Commonwealth want to have a say on the legality of cannabis;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

➔SECTION 1. IT IS PROPOSED THAT A NEW SECTION BE ADDED TO THE CONSTITUTION OF KENTUCKY TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The right of an individual twenty-one years of age or older to possess, use, buy, or sell one ounce or less of cannabis shall be guaranteed in this state and shall not be subject to any criminal sanction.

(2) The right of an individual twenty-one years of age or older to cultivate, harvest, or store up to five cannabis plants for personal use shall be guaranteed in this state and shall not be subject to any criminal sanction.

(3) The General Assembly may by general law regulate and control the production, processing, and sale of cannabis and cannabis-derived products.

➔Section 2. This amendment shall be submitted to the voters of the Commonwealth for their ratification or rejection at the time and in the manner provided for under Sections 256 and 257 of the Constitution and under KRS 118.415. The following shall be printed on the ballot:

"Are you in favor of amending the present Constitution of Kentucky to add a new section of the Constitution of Kentucky to allow individuals twenty-one years of age or older to possess, use, buy, or sell one ounce or less of cannabis, to cultivate, harvest, or store up to five cannabis plants for personal use, and for the production, processing, and sale of cannabis to be regulated and controlled by the General Assembly?
