RE: Ann Gotlib Sighting

On Thursday, October 6, 1989, I received the attached report of an Ann Gotlib sighting. The child described is 15 years old and is a freshman in high school.

Since Ann Gotlib would now be 18 years old, it can reasonably be deduced this is not Ann Gotlib.

RE: Child Keyppers International, Inc.

On October 4, 1989, at 0930 hours, I called Child Keyppers International regarding the attached letter requesting updated information for their new directory.

I talked with Sue Wintz, who indicated they had previously received information on the Gotlib case from Sergeant R. C. Mathena. I gave Sergeant R. Howard's name as the officer in charge of the case, and Ms. Wintz stated she would make the change before the directory went to press. All other information remained the same.

RE: PHONE CONVERSATION

CONVERSATION WITH: [REDACTED]

On November 12, 1989 at 1425 hours, the undersigned received a phone call from [REDACTED].

Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she had spotted a girl that looked like Ann Gotlib on this date at 1400 hours. The girl was riding a pink bike south on Shelby Street and then west on Burnett Avenue. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that the girl did not look like the computer picture of Ann Gotlib but rather like an older version of the original little girl photograph. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that the girl had red hair that was pulled up, but she could tell it was long and curly. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she had called the Louisville Police Department just prior to calling me.

The undersigned then concluded the conversation and called L.P.D. Det. Mark Handy. Det. Handy advised that he had talked with Ms. [REDACTED] and was getting a uniformed car to check the area for the girl. He advised that he would call me back if his officer located the girl.

The undersigned then concluded the conversation.

Investigation continuing.

RE: Ann Gotlib Investigation

The complainant, [REDACTED] called to report she had information concerning the Gotlib case. I called her on September 13, 1989, at 1425 hours. Ms. [REDACTED] told me she saw Ann Gotlib with a man in Bashford Manor Mall around 1245 hours on June 1, 1983, or May 31, 1983. She was unsure on the date, but knew it was a Tuesday. Gotlib left the mall around 1300 hours on her bicycle. She said the man had a dark, thin, sunken face.

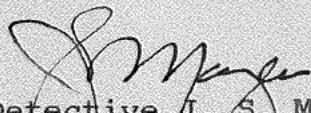

When Ann Gotlib was in the mall, she saw Ann wait in front of Pass Pets. When she was approached by the man and he said "are you ready to go," Ann said yes and they went to Target. She saw Ann almost break away from the man, but he slapped her and he said she would get it later.

Ms. [REDACTED] said she repeated this on the third day of the investigation, when she recognized the photograph on television. Each time she called someone would answer, put her on hold, and never get back with her. So she never reported it again.

Recently she talked with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] about the information. Ms. [REDACTED] speculated [REDACTED]'s brother-in-law was the man who took Ann.

The interview concluded at 1445 hours.
